

The Laramie Project Day 4

Review: Dichotomy

CATHERINE CONNOLLY

- Academic
- Gay
- Personal
- Political

Where do you fit into these dichotomies?

To Do: Take five minutes to write about how you feel about the play so far. What dichotomies do you fit into? (Political or not, personal/impersonal, etc.)

Turn to a neighbor and share some thoughts about what dichotomies you think you fit into at this point in the play. What dichotomies do you and your neighbor have in common? In what ways are you different?

One Word Response

Everyone share one word to describe how you feel at this point in the story.

Act II

Props and Costumes

Consider your character. Take 30 seconds and decide which one costume piece she would be wearing and one prop you would give her. Why did you make these choices?

Homework

- 1. Finish reading Act II
- 2. Write your journal response for Act II. This will be DUE MONDAY.
 - What new dichotomies do we get in Act II?
 - Which perspectives do you want to see more of? What do you think is missing?
 - How do you feel about Laramie after reading?
